Context:

The Equality Act 2010 replaces previous anti-discrimination laws with a single Act. A key provision is the public sector Equality Duty. It replaces the three previous public sector equality duties with 7 categories of age, disability, gender reassignment, pregnancy and maternity, race, religion or belief, sex and sexual orientation. The Act also makes it unlawful for the responsible body of a school to discriminate against, harass or victimise a pupil or potential pupil in relation to admissions, the way it provides education for pupils, provision of pupil access to any benefit, facility or service, or by excluding a pupil or subjecting them to any other detriment. In England and Wales the Act applies to all maintained and independent schools, including Academies and Free Schools, and maintained and non-maintained special schools.

Definitions of bullying, hate and Child on Child abuse:

Bullying is behaviour by an individual or group, repeated over time, that intentionally hurts another individual or group either physically or emotionally. Bullying can take many forms (for instance, cyberbullying via text messages or the internet), and is often motivated by prejudice against particular groups, for example on grounds of disability, mental health, race, Gypsy, Roma and Traveller children, religion, gender, sexual orientation (LGBTQ+), alternative sub-culture or because a child is adopted or has caring responsibilities. It might be motivated by actual differences between children, or perceived differences. Stopping violence and ensuring immediate physical safety is obviously a school's first priority but emotional bullying can be more damaging than physical; teachers and schools have to make their own judgements about each specific case.

Hate in the context of behaviour and attitude has been defined as "Acts of violence, hostility and intimidation directed towards people because of their identity or perceived difference".

Defining these with pupils is an on-going process that is reinforced by all staff, and specifically in PSD lessons and tutor time. Pupils at AKS are taught at age-appropriate times (and according to individual need and understanding) about bullying. For example, pupils will explore the misuse of the word 'gay' and about stereotypes and whether children get picked on for not behaving in 'typical' gender way. Older pupils will explore anti-gay language and whether 'gay' pupils feel safe in school. Children are aware of LGBTQ+ bullying and ways to stop it. At appropriate time for individual pupils and classes, pupils discuss non-traditional family units such as same sex families.

Child on Child abuse:

All staff should be aware that safeguarding issues can manifest themselves via Child on Child abuse, when a child abuses another child. The types of abuse include, but may not be limited to, bullying (including cyberbullying), gender based violence, sexual assaults and harassment, physical abuse or sexting. Staff should be aware of the implications and ensure that any type of abuse should never be tolerated or passed off as 'banter' or 'just having a laugh'. Policy and procedures are outlined within the Behaviour Support Policy and Safeguarding Policy with regards to Child on Child abuse.

Bullying/Child on Child abuse can be:

- Emotional being unfriendly, excluding, tormenting (e.g. hiding books, threatening gestures)
- Physical pushing, kicking, hitting, punching or any use of violence

- Racist racial taunts, graffiti, gestures, name calling
- Sexual unwanted physical contact, sexually abusive comments or inciting sexting
- Homophobic because of or focussing on the issue of sexuality and/or gender identity (to include LGBTQ+)
- Verbal name-calling, sarcasm, spreading rumours, teasing
- Cyber all areas of internet, such as email, internet chat room or social media misuse, mobile threats by text messaging & calls, misuse of associated technology i.e. camera & video facilities

Cyber-bullying:

The rapid development of and widespread access to technology has provided a new medium for 'virtual' bullying, which can occur in or outside school. Cyber-bullying is a different form of bullying and can happen at all times of the day, with a potentially bigger audience, and more accessories as people forward on content at a click.

Sexting

Sexting is when someone shares sexual, naked or semi-naked images or videos of themselves or others, or sends sexually explicit messages.

They can be sent using mobiles, tablets, smartphones, laptops - any device that allows you to share media and messages.

For further information, including procedures for responding to a sexting incident please see the Behaviour Support Policy.

Statement of Intent

Alderman Knight School is committed to providing a caring, friendly and safe environment for all of our pupils so they can learn in a relaxed and secure atmosphere. Bullying or hate related incidents of any kind are unacceptable at our school. If these do occur, all pupils should be able to tell and know that incidents will be dealt with promptly and effectively. We are a TELLING school. This means that anyone who knows that bullying is happening is expected to tell members of staff. Pupils learn best in a safe and calm environment that is free from disruption and in which education is the primary focus.

- All governors, teaching and non-teaching staff, pupils and parents should have an understanding of what bullying is.

- All pupils and parents should know what the school policy is, and what they should do if bullying or hate incidents arises.
- As a school we take bullying and hate incidents seriously. Pupils and parents should be assured that they will be supported when incidents are reported.
- Neither bullying or hate incidents will be tolerated.
